THE KEYNOTE EXPERIENCE

Awarely™

Real Threat or Code Red?

Why Smart People Obey the Wrong Alarms and How to Make the Move That Matters

When staying productive becomes a way to stay protected.

Preparation can become a reason to wait. Perfection can delay a decision. Loyalty can keep you from having an honest discussion. This keynote helps audiences recognize these patterns and follow through on the decisions, actions, opportunities or conversations they've been postponing.

WHAT YOUR AUDIENCE WALKS OUT WITH

A NEW AWARENESS

Real threat or Code Red?

Recognize when your alarm is responding to actual danger and when it's protecting you from discomfort.

THE PATTERNS

What keeps you putting it off?

Recognize how readiness, busyness, perfection, self-preservation and loyalty can turn into reasons to delay what matters.

THE COMMITMENT

What will you do next?

Choose one action you've been postponing and leave with a plan for taking it, including a specific date and time.

> "Ryan is an engaging and informative presenter who makes the material both accessible and useful.
